Beauty looks

Sunkissed

Spring is the ideal time to get the sun's glow on your face, though beware, when the harmful effects of ultraviolet light. As Pink Perfect, a promising therapy will help you apply the organically-sourced Nature's Spray Tan with equipment that looks like a tanning salon. The only difference is that the main focus (on any skin) but you can have it on in just your professional spa treatment instead of too. You will be achieving the natural tan under the sun (for 15 minutes) but after this, you'll have glow with no burn. Opt to spray in the buff and before leaving, do check that the sun is spread evenly without visible tan lines or patches. The tan is water-resistant and lasts for around two weeks, although it tends to fade more quickly in areas such as the underarms. $50 per session, you can also GOY with the facial care tanning lotion ($35). Pink Perfect is at 480-5th Long Court Shopping Centre, 401-229 Pacific Square and 405-407 for East Plaza.

Rose, Rose, we love you

Formulated with a blend of rose flower oil, grape seed oil and other essential scents, Crosselle 11 Total Rose is a cleanser that removes impurities without disrupting the skin's pH balance. The ingredients help moisturize and protect against environmental pollutants. Most cleansers tend to be alkaline in composition, resulting in a stripping off of the skin, which eventually leads to dryness. Crosselle 11 Total Rose is so gentle, it can even be used by children aged from six up. $30.00 from Crosselle de Paris, 54 Temple Street and some beauty stores.
