

Publication:	TODAY
Page:
Month of Issue:	26 July 2010

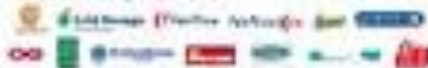

Years of research Essence from nature

Made from 100% pure natural herbs
Sustains the complementary cells of the body and provides the essential vitamins. Clears the mind, improves concentration, Memory and fragrance. A must have in any household.

For more information, visit www.absolute.com.sg

For more information, call 6733 2808

ENTERTAINMENT

Audrey Fong (left), Audrey Fong (middle) and Paul Green (right) at a party.

A toast to the end of singlehood

Audrey Fong's celebration
from party plans to wedding day, staying arrangements with Australian husband

TV HOST and actress Audrey Fong celebrated her last days of being single by joining the ever red on Sunday night.

Her friends surprised her at her party that included a brunch and beauty session — all done in a Dubai-Style Day Club theme.

What means more than others and a lot of joy.

When Fong caught up with the 32-year-old, she asked her how she got her way to a last dinner in Thailand, after which she planned to go for shopping in a Dubai Day and party it up in Asia.

There is the taking advantage of her last night of freedom? "I'm wearing a very short skirt," Audrey laughed.

The church wedding will be held on Friday at her childhood parish in Hoeng Joo and the wedding reception the following evening at the JW Marriott in Kuala Lumpur. Last October of her former Paul Green a lawyer based in Perth. "This is lovely man. He's pleasant and kind, patient and giving. Very, very giving."

The couple, who met at a bar in Perth and have dated for over two years, plan to keep their post-marriage relationship long distance for a while, at least.

The girl so much work going on in Singapore and also in KL, planning the Chinese Wedding and all that stuff. And he's just been offered partnership in his firm," said Audrey. The former beauty queen is now the national director of The Ultimate Malaysia 2010.

"Both our careers are going really well right now and it seems only to get up and go to the other person's country when you're going so much going on for yourself. And since we've been doing long distance all the way, staying with my family in the department. The more we're going to be together eventually it will definitely be within the next few years, because we were so close to each other in the past few years."

Clearly, her way is one going to get on her feet right, though Audrey could only imagine. "My friends won't tell me what's going on? They're just laughing back at their eyes," laughed the former Lee The Queen. "But not to already feel a couple of bottles of wine and a couple of bottles of Champagne today! We need to give the ever red!"

By: [Name]

THE MAD

He's a lovely man.
He's pleasant and kind,
patient and giving.
Very, very giving.
Audrey Fong, on her
honeymoon, Paul Green